AntDevCo

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Las Cruces, New Mexico, August 28, 2008 – Antenna Development Corporation, a growing name in the field of specialized aerospace antennas, today announced that the company's quality management system has been awarded the International Organization for Standardization's ISO 9001:2000 certification. "Achieving ISO 9001-2000 certification is a terrific milestone for both AntDevCo and our customers. Antenna Development Corporation is committed to delivering high quality services in the area of spacecraft and other aerospace antenna design and manufacture", explained Dr. Bruce Blevins, President of AntDevCo. The company's ISO certification recognizes AntDevCo's ongoing commitment to quality, reliability, and continual improvement of all processes and maintaining transparency for better customer satisfaction.

State of New Mexico Assistance - Antenna Development Corporation received significant preparation assistance and training from the State of New Mexico's Economic Development Department through the New Mexico 9000 program. "This program enabled us to successfully pursue certification", said Thomas Greenling, Vice President of Engineering at AntDevCo. "I would like to personally congratulate AntDevCo on their recent ISO 9001:2000 certification. This certification shows their dedication to a high quality service and products" adds Fred Mondragon, Cabinet Secretary of Economic Development Department.
